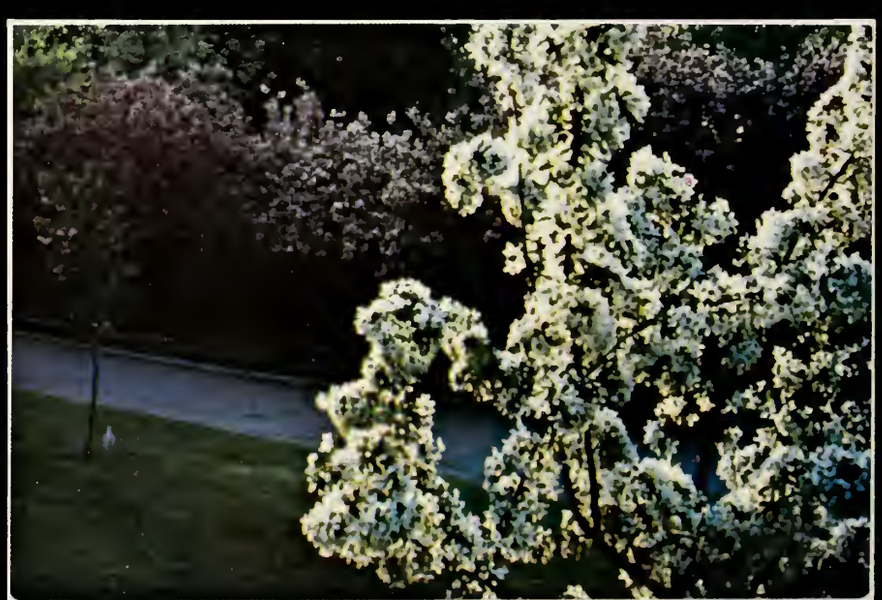
A STATESMAN
INCORRUPTIBLE AND FEARLESS



If we try to become one with ourselves then we can begin to understand how moments, minutes, hours, days and dreams slip away from us unnoticed, untouched unheard of . . . How seasons change from green-gold to crimson and then to snow, how skies above us seem too vast to embrace, too endless to touch.

GENTLEMEN, JACKETS ARE

Thank You

On October 2, 1976, we marched in procession to the College Chapel. We received a blessing for continued success in our final year at Regis, while family and faculty members participated in the celebration. Clothed in robes officially indicating our seniority, each woman left the chapel with her own feeling of pride and honor in having been a member of this memorable event. A day has been returned to our college, which we can only hope is back to stay.

MARCH 4
FEBRUAR

February 12, 1977. Today, Regis College is fifty years old. To celebrate this momentous occasion, Governor Michael Dukakis and S. Therese Higgins reenacted the giving of the charter to Regis.

The ceremony was preceeded by a concelebrated liturgy, during which the history of the founding of Regis was recited by Sr. A. Catherine Murphy, President of the Sisters of St. Joseph, in Boston.

During the ceremony, the Pioneer Award was presented to S. Emily and S. Anna Lawrence, in a moving moment.

Following the ceremony, a celebration dinner was enjoyed by more than 500 people. To top it off, an immense and decorative cake, commemorating the 50th anniversary, was served.

The Charter Day Committee worked hard on a pictorial exhibit, films, and a fascinating slide show, of over 2000 slides, to end the day.

The impressive array of graduates [illegible] Regis College, Weston, yesterday [illegible] Rev. Wm. Francis L. Phelan, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Looking Back
In the time it has taken me to do all that I had planned to do, I could have lived.
I could have dreamed that we were meant to be travelers in far away places, always drifting always wanting, waiting and yearning to capture time.
If I had lived, I would have put stars where I wanted them, I would have placed them in dark shadowy, dismal places for all to see . . .
I would have grown lush lofty wings of the gull to fly above the gray, cloudy, nameless sky . . . I would have painted profound pictures of the youth that left me yesterday, without notice.
If I had imagined, or paused to notice the mountains that crumbled into deserts, I could have saved the child, left behind . . .
Now I realize, we are what we are, so I give thanks and the stars have fallen into place.

We have experienced life in this place called Regis. We have made an impressionable beginning, and amid the confusion of this new environment, have come to know ourselves.

We have traveled along the vast road of knowledge, and reached the area signifying completion of college studies.

Our struggles, disappointments, laughters, and accomplishments will remain with us.

Those were the days my friend. We thought they'd never end.

100 Days Celebration

Heart of my heart,
How I love that melody
Heart of my heart,
Brings back fond memories.
When we were kids
On the corner of the street,
We were rough and ready guys
But, oh, how we could har-mo-nize to
Heart of my heart,
How our friends were dearer then Too bad we had to part,
I know a tear would glisten
If once more I could listen
To that gang that sang
Heart of my heart.

Gray, gray, headland by headland north,
the land leans away, faithful to winter light: stone, tree trunk, that veered sand sheet the foam slides across the act of the world.
I stand at the rail to watch our way home.

As always, one of you, one of the old family, stands by my shoulder, while the sea rocks and never can be real enough:
the day winks; the night prevails, our passage long but only ripples across a beach again and again.

Somewhere out there a little splash that marks no more than a seal's birthday touches the rail, then falls. I stand, as always, as always trying to know, while first the wind, then all the far world passes, inward, inward toward me,

A gray glove along my hand.

When Earth was a lonely place
a voice came: "Rest.
Whatever of good you know is all men's — that is my gift."

In times when tyrants rage and soldiers kill, strangers bring gifts sometimes and the terrible scenes go still.

Even today — pain, anger, distress —
the sky goes arching away toward more than loneliness.

We are drenched in experience. We are given a taste of the bitter-sweet world and are shown a glimpse of the future in this moment. We are driven into disillusionment. We are blinded riders upon this stage — world, steering ourselves toward truth. And what is self-recognition then? Ripeness does seem to be all . . . Endure . . . the pangs of suffering, acquire self-knowledge and rejoice. The journey cannot be so futile.

Phyllis Bassett — Sociology

Janet Cullen — English

We give, we enjoy sharing . . . loving life as an entity . . .
We gave from within, without what we do not know. Yet, that we wanted you to know . . . What? . . . about our caring, cherishing of you . . . emptying of soul, to lead toward a greater goal. Each alone as one, intertwined without some, made a nest without twigs nor leaves . . . together so long as they went on . . . perhaps, perchance, all too soon, life flew away as a wingless bird cast upon a black sea . . . and they were just starting their nest again.
Strength, oh yes, strength . . . how strong . . . giving of themselves could not be wrong . . . there was no return of the bird (oh, white dove) why? There was no return to the nest which lacked twigs and leaves. They love life so, and also the dove. Tell the dove if you discover it along the way, to return now and then . . . say the nest has been found . . ., with twigs and crisp leaves . . ., a good sign encumbering eternity. There is no shelter now . . . it is cold . . . Yet, that love for life and the dove gives us warmth.

With warmest congratulations to our daughters and the class of 1977.

You lit the candles in my heart.
In my heart, you lit the dark.

Class of 1977

"Heart of my heart"
How I love that melody,
"Heart of my heart"
Brings back those memories,
When we were kids on
The corner of the street,
We were rough and ready guys,
But, oh how could we harmonize to . . .
Until we meet again

There are only two lasting bequests
we can give our children.
One is roots, the other,
wings.

Congratulations to our daughter Kathleen,

Friends,

Few words can capture the moments that have been made during our years at Regis.

Instead, we present this volume to the Regis community, especially to the class of 1977, to serve as a reflection of our lives together.

The past four years have seen changes in ourselves, in Regis and in the world around us. From the hill, we have viewed the historical resignation of a President, the celebration of the Bicentennial and the beginning of a new Administration.

Regis, itself, has seen changes in Administration, in attitudes on parietals, a new name for the newspaper, and the reincarnation of the Juan Valdez into the Tower Tavern.

The changes in ourselves are as individual as we are individual, yet with a sense of community.

This yearbook will hopefully serve as a lasting dedication to the class of 1977. The members of this class have shown a spirit of togetherness and a love for Regis which has reinstated and old tradition, the Cap and Gown Ceremony.

The Staff has worked long hours to produce this volume, in the hope that whenever you browse through it, you will relive these times, with a smile.

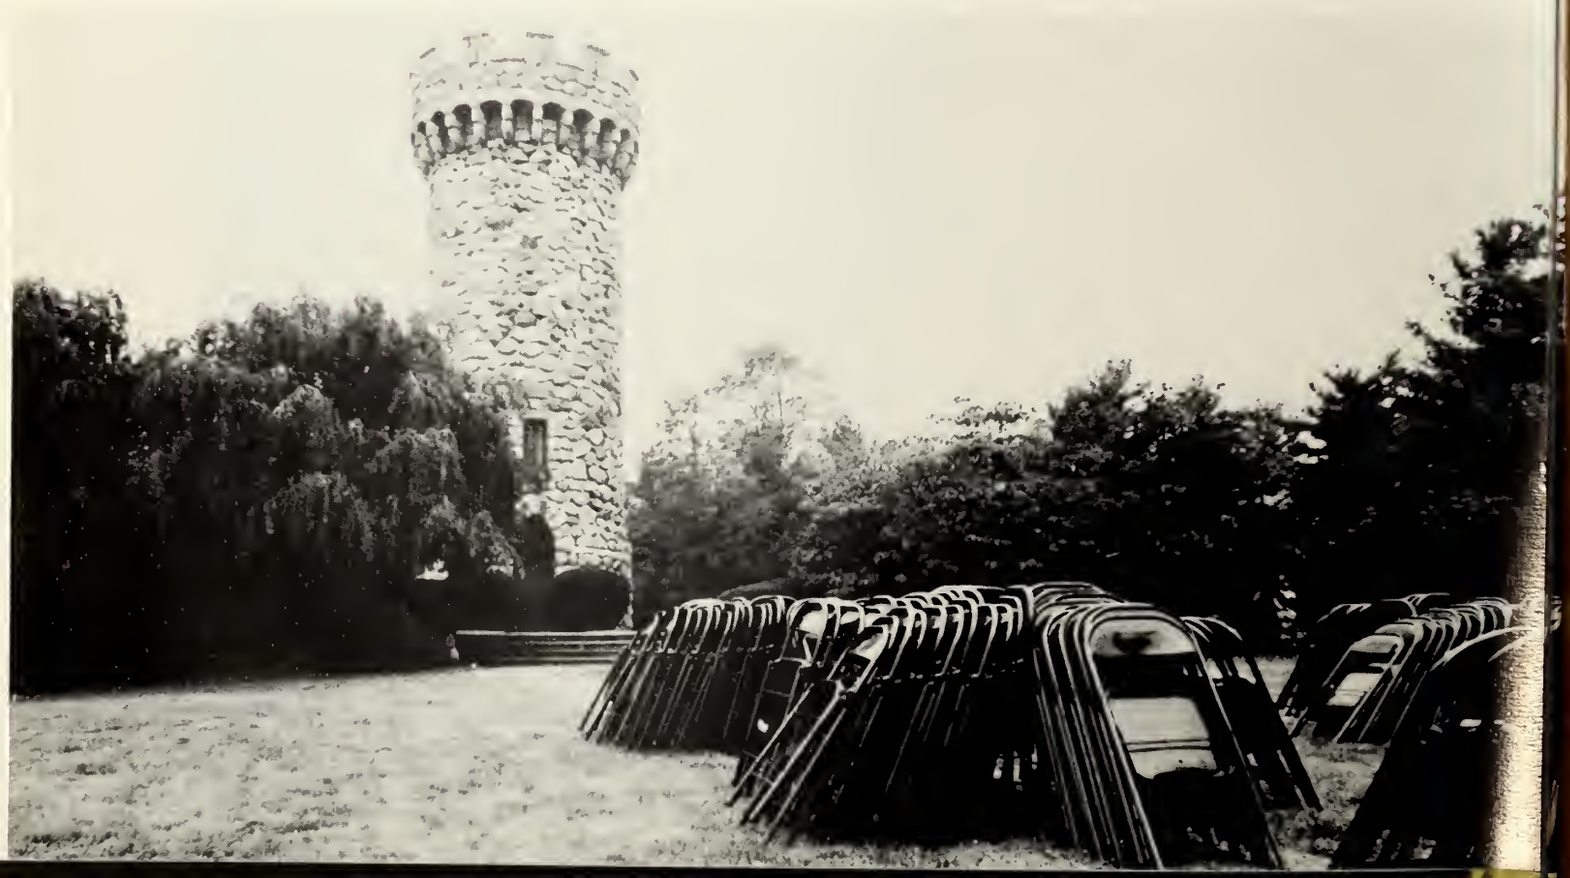
Carol

SONG TO THE CLASS OF 1977

A Friend of Mine

What you mean to me, words cannot say.
You're a rainbow in the sky, and I want you to stay.
You'll always be in my life, and in my heart and in my mind.
Because you are a friend of mine. A friend of mine.
I'm so glad you are a friend of mine.

You bring the light to my eyes,
The peace to my mind,
The love to my heart.
You're a special kind of find.
Yes, you are a friend of mine. A friend of mine.
I'm so glad you are a friend of mine.

Forever young we cannot be.
It's time to part and grow separately.
But you'll always be in my life,
And in my heart and in my mind.
Because you are a friend of mine. A friend of mine.
I'm so glad you are a friend of mine.


— Jill Cislaghi
